POP-UP RESEARCH LAB

1. One-sentence summary of your proposal:

2. Name of lead applicant

3. The problems that the lab aims to solve (no more than 1 page total)
   a. for non-academics
   b. for academics

4. Motivation (no more than 1 page total)
   a. How might this be landmark Humanities and Social Sciences research?
   b. What led to the need for this work, and where could it lead next?
   c. Who is waiting for the outcomes and why?
   d. How will the project help non-grantees at the University of Sydney?

5. Proposed Visiting Fellow: who, and why they are perfect for this (and an indication of their availability)

6. Proposed participants (either specific names, or ideal profiles; at least half to be University of Sydney people, preferably from multiple schools/faculties) with an indication of their availability

7. Proposal of sessions, talks, and activities to take place over the three-week period; draft schedule, and motivation of why the proposed set of research activities is best for the stated goals (no more than 1 page total)

8. Hoped-for outcomes (i.e., what could change because of this activity)

9. Planned outputs (e.g., book, articles, film, exhibition, funding proposal)

10. A planned public event e.g. Sydney Ideas

11. A planned postgraduate research student master class event